HOUR OF CODE KOSOVA 2023

13-17 NOVEMBER 2023

In a remarkable display of digital enthusiasm, Kosovo joined the global "Hour of Code" initiative, embracing the transformative power of coding.

Through engaging activities, hands-on sessions, and inclusive learning, this event not only highlighted the importance of digital literacy but also set a precedent for the future of education in our country.

"

TECHNOLOGY IS THE FUTURE, AND WITH HOUR OF CODE WE ARE PART OF IT!

SUCCESS STORY

This year, Kosovo marked an important historical moment in digital education with the extraordinary participation of:

350 SCHOOLS

22,589 STUDENTS

22 MUNICIPALITIES

---

PARTNERS:

Republika e Kosovës
MINISTRIA E ARSIMIT, SHKENCËS, TEKNOLOGJISË DHE INOVACIONIT

SHKOLLA DIGJITALE

cacttus Education

PROBIT ACADEMY

Learning Education Tree

CODE

MATTIK School

BIT ACADEMY

CTA Coding Training Academy

coders ACADEMY

EVALUATION BY STUDENTS

The student assessment process during Coding Week was designed to assess participants' progress and proficiency in various coding skills.

- How much did you enjoy the Hour of Code activities?

| | |
|---|---|
| A lot | 85% |
| On average | 14.2% |
| Not at all | 0.8% |

- Do you want to learn programming in school?

91.3%

ACTIVITIES AND TRAINING

Hour of Code Week featured a comprehensive range of coding activities and workshops, which were held in physical and virtual learning environments.

Trainings with physical presence are:
- held for 13 municipalities of Kosovo.
- developed in various educational institutions, reaching teachers directly and preparing them for the Hour of Code.
- trained a total of 140 teachers who actively engaged in these sessions, enhancing their skills in teaching coding concepts..

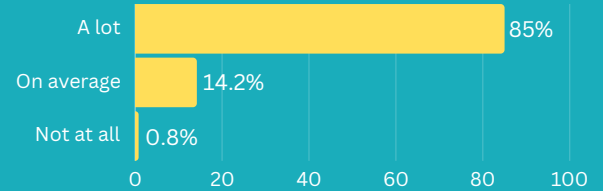

The online trainings are:
- conducted 20 training sessions, using platforms such as Google Meet.
- tailored to provide educators with in-depth knowledge and practical knowledge for using Code.org effectively in their classrooms.
- trained more than 1000 teachers from different schools participated, contributing to the advancement of coding education in Kosovo.

MEDIA AND PUBLICITY

Hour of Code Week in Kosovo gained widespread attention and recognition through extensive media coverage and high-profile engagements, reflecting the importance and success of the initiative. The Prime Minister of Kosovo emphasized the government's commitment to the advancement of digital literacy, while the initiative was organized under the patronage of the Minister of Education, Mrs. Arbërie Nagavci.

www.shpik.org
admin@shpik.org
044 507 575

Skano QR kodin